What is Lymphoedema?

Lymphoedema is a form of tissue swelling that can arise from insufficient lymph vessels (primary lymphoedema) or when the lymphatic system has been affected by injury, trauma, radiotherapy, surgery, and/or infection. The swelling may be in any part of the body but more commonly in the legs or arms.

LK Lymphoedema Centre offers a comprehensive management service tailored to your needs by our expert lymphoedema therapist, Dr. Linda Khong, PhD.

Linda is an Australian trained Physiotherapist with postgraduate qualifications. She is accredited with the National Lymphoedema Practitioners Register and is fully qualified in the Dr. Vodder and Foeldi Manual Lymphatic Drainage technique and Combined Decongestive Therapy at an advanced level.
